No Refunds Policy

All sales of dietary supplements on this website are final. We do not offer refunds or exchanges on any products once they have been shipped. Please ensure that you have thoroughly reviewed your order before completing your purchase.

FDA Guidelines

1. Labeling Requirements: All dietary supplements must be labeled in accordance with FDA guidelines, which include a statement of identity, the net quantity of contents, a nutrition label, an ingredient list, and the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor.
2. Health Claims: Any health claims made about the supplements must be truthful and not misleading. The FDA requires that specific health claims be substantiated by scientific evidence.
3. Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP): All dietary supplements must be manufactured following the FDA's Good Manufacturing Practices to ensure the identity, purity, quality, strength, and composition of dietary supplements.
4. Reporting Adverse Events: Any serious adverse events associated with the use of a dietary supplement must be reported to the FDA within 15 business days.
5. Marketing and Promotion: Marketing and promotional materials must comply with FDA regulations, ensuring that claims are not misleading and that they do not suggest the product can prevent, treat, or cure diseases.

Consultation with Healthcare Professionals

Always consult with a healthcare professional before starting any new dietary supplement, especially if you have any pre-existing medical conditions, are taking other medications, or are pregnant or nursing.
